

Winnipeg Jets Wives and Girlfriends raise over $44,000 for the Movement Centre of Manitoba and Camp Manitou in a pair of fundraisers

WINNIPEG, April 2, 2019 - The Winnipeg Jets Wives and Girlfriends will make two presentations this week for the money raised from the Lucky Pucks and Love Struck Pucks fundraisers. The two campaigns were the final two of three fundraisers put together by the group this year that have raised $57,434.13 for three local charities thanks to the generosity of Jets fans.

The first presentation takes place on Thursday, April 4 at The Movement Centre of Manitoba (1646 Henderson Highway). Michela Myers, Sam Wheeler, Brittany Little, and Emelie Kulikov will be on hand at 11:00 a.m. to present The Movement Centre of Manitoba with a cheque for $18,263.33. That amount was the proceeds from the Lucky Pucks campaign in which St. Patrick's Day-themed pucks signed by Winnipeg Jets players were sold prior to the game on March 12/19 against the San Jose Sharks.

Who: Michela Myers, Sam Wheeler, Brittany Little, and Emelie Kulikov

What: Jets Wives and Girlfriends cheque presentation
Media availability to follow

Where: The Movement Centre of Manitoba - 1646 Henderson Highway

When: Thursday, April 4, 2019
11:00 a.m.

The second presentation takes place on Saturday, April 6 at Camp Manitou (850 Green Oaks Lane, Headingley, MB). A group of the Jets wives, girlfriends, and their families will be on hand at 10:30 a.m. at Camp Manitou to unveil a plaque for a cabin which was built using the proceeds of the Love Struck Pucks campaign. The Love Struck Pucks campaign raised $25,981.52 by selling Valentine's Day-themed pucks signed by Winnipeg Jets players. The pucks were sold prior to the game on Feb. 14/19 against the Colorado Avalanche.

Who: Jets wives, girlfriends, and their families

What: Jets Wives and Girlfriends cabin plaque presentation
Media availability to follow

Where: Camp Manitou - 850 Green Oaks Lane, Headingley, MB

When: Saturday, April 6, 2019
10:30 a.m.

For 2018-19 Jets tickets, please visit winnipegjets.com/tickets.